

Admission to “Iuliu Hațieganu” University of Medicine and Pharmacy Cluj-Napoca by evaluation of the documents attesting applicants’ school performance and personal achievements
2020

Information for international applicants who are citizens of the EU Member States, the EEA, the Swiss Confederation and third countries

What is the educational offer of “Iuliu Hațieganu” University of Medicine and Pharmacy, Cluj-Napoca for the academic year 2020-2021?

1. Specialties for professions under sectorial regulation in the European Union

No.	Study program	Duration of studies	Number of credits
1	Medicine	6 years	360
2	Dental Medicine	6 years	360
3	Pharmacy	5 years	300
4	General Nursing	4 years	240

2. Specialties for professions under general regulation in the European Union

No.	Study program	Duration of studies	Number of credits
1	Physio-Kinesiotherapy and Rehabilitation	3 years	180
2	Radiology and Imaging	3 years	180
3	Nutrition and Dietetics	3 years	180
4	Dental Technician	3 years	180

1. In what language are the courses taught?

The courses offered in the first three years of study for a degree in Medicine, Dental Medicine and Pharmacy are available in Romanian, English or French. Given the need for doctor-patient communication, clinical training, seminars and practical works are carried out in Romanian beginning with the fourth year of study.

In General Nursing, Physio-Kinesiotherapy and Rehabilitation, Radiology and Imaging, Nutrition and Dietetics and Dental Technician study programs the teaching activities are carried out entirely in Romanian.

2. Who is eligible for application?

Citizens of the EU, the EEA, the Swiss Confederation or third countries are eligible for application by evaluation of the documents attesting school performance and personal achievements.

A high school diploma from an accredited high school in the applicant’s country of origin is the minimum application requirement. This diploma must be recognized by the Ministry of Education and Research of Romania.

3. Can I apply if I have not yet taken or passed the baccalaureate (school leaving examination) or if there is no school leaving examination in my country?

Yes. The official document proving high school graduation and the final marks of the baccalaureate examination must be attached to your application file.

The original high school diploma or official document proving high school graduation, in case of applicants from countries without a baccalaureate, must be presented upon final enrolment. If upon final enrollment/matriculation you do not hold a high school diploma or an official document stating that you graduated from high school and the final marks of the baccalaureate examination, or if any fraud is detected, you will automatically lose the place obtained following the selection process and will not be reimbursed any fees that you may have already paid.

4. How can applicants demonstrate their language proficiency?

In order for applicants to demonstrate their language proficiency, the application files must include supporting documents. Please include one out of the following three documents:

4.1. For the programs of studies with teaching in English and French, by submitting to the candidate's file a Language Proficiency Certificate of minimum B2 level, internationally recognized.

Certificates with limited validity must be valid at the beginning of the academic year in which the applicant enrolled.

4.2. By graduating high school in an institution where the language of instruction is English or French.

4.3. For the study programs with courses taught in Romanian the following certificates are recognized:

- Diploma / Certificate of completion of a one-year preparatory course in;
- Romanian documents proving that the applicant completed at least four consecutive years of study in the Romanian language in a school belonging to the Romanian educational system;
- Language certificates (minimum result: level B2 according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages) issued by: Romanian higher education institutions accredited to organize a one-year preparatory course in Romanian as a foreign language; departments of Romanian language, literature, culture and civilization in universities outside Romania; the Romanian Language Institute or the Romanian Cultural Institute.

5. How many places are available?

The number of places available for admission in the first year by evaluation of the documents attesting applicants' school performance and personal achievements is established every year by the Council of each faculty and validated by the Senate of the university, with the approval of the relevant Ministry. This number is published on the university website, www.umfcluj.ro, in the Admission section.

6. How are applicants evaluated for admission?

Applicants are evaluated for admission in two ways:

- a. by written entrance examination in Romanian language for citizens of Romania, the European Union, the EEA and the Swiss Confederation who take part in the written entrance examination organized in July 2020. It is only by taking part in this exam that applicants can access state-subsidized places or tuition fee places.

Information regarding this method of admission can be found in the Admissions Regulation for Romanian citizens.

- b. by evaluation of application files containing proof of the applicants' academic performance and personal achievements for citizens of the European Union, the EEA, the Swiss Confederation and third countries who opt for this admission method. In this category are also applicants who opt for the admission of Romanians Everywhere.

An applicant can only opt for one method of admission in the same admission session.

The exception to this rule are those applying for the admission of Romanians Everywhere, who can opt both for this admission method and for one of the two above.

7. How are application files evaluated?

The application files are evaluated:

- a. by a committee set up at each faculty composed by dean and vice-deans;
- b. according to a timetable approved each year by the Board of Directors;
- c. by analyzing the documents included in the application files;
- d. by applying general selection criteria as well as criteria specific to each faculty.

The selection results cannot be challenged.

8. What is the difference between applicants admitted following the entrance examination and applicants admitted by evaluation of the documents attesting school performance and personal achievements?

The possibility of receiving financial support for studies and the amount of tuition fees paid constitute the differences between the two types of applicants.

Applicants admitted following the written entrance examination may be subsidized by the Romanian state or may pay a tuition fee.

Applicants admitted based on their application file may only have access to standard tuition fee places (except those who are admitted through the admission for Romanians Everywhere).

There are no differences, privileges or discriminations between these two categories of students as far as the teaching-learning process is concerned.

9. Is there a link between the applicant's citizenship and the type of admission the applicant chooses?

Romanian and EU, EEA, Swiss Confederation citizens may choose the written entrance examination in Romanian.

Citizens of Romania, the EU, EEA, Swiss Confederation and third countries may be admitted based on their application file.

In the English and French study programs, applicants are admitted only by evaluation of their school performance and personal achievements.

In the study programs taught in Romanian, the following categories of applicants can be admitted by evaluation of their school performance and personal achievements:

- a. citizens of third countries who:
 - graduated the preparatory year of Romanian language;or
 - submit Romanian education papers attesting at least 4 consecutive years of study taught in Romanian language in a school unit within the national system in Romania;or
 - submit language certificates or diplomas proving at least the B2 level, according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages, issued by accredited Romanian higher education institutions organizing the preparatory year of Romanian language for foreigners, by language, literature, culture and civilization departments within universities abroad / Romanian Language Institute or Romanian Cultural Institute.
- b. citizens of the EU Member States, the EEA, the Swiss Confederation or third countries of Romanian origin, who participate to the Admission of Romanians Everywhere and who benefit from higher education without paying school fees, under the conditions provided by the regulations in force.

Also, for the study programs taught in Romanian are admitted without admission exam foreign citizens registered through bilateral governmental and / or institutional agreements, who benefit from scholarships granted by the Romanian state, under the conditions provided by the regulations in force.

10. Can students admitted in the first year transfer from one study program (specialty) to another?

Students admitted in the first year to the Faculty of Medicine or Dental Medicine cannot choose to switch the program to which he/she was admitted within the same academic year. Transfers between Medicine and Dental Medicine and reversely are possible only after graduating the first year of study, within the limits of available places and based on justifying reasons.

Students enrolled in Pharmacy cannot transfer to other study programs of the university.

11. What are the tuition fees and the costs of the application process?

The tuition fee per year of study for newly enrolled applicants admitted in the academic year 2020-2021 based on the evaluation of their application file is 6000 EUROS for the study programs of Medicine, Dental Medicine and Pharmacy. The tuition fee for the Nursing, Physio-Kinesiotherapy and Rehabilitation, Radiology and Medical Imaging (Technician), Dentistry (Dental Technician), Nutrition and Dietetics study programs is 3500 EUROS.

All applicants, except for the applicants within the Admission of Romanians Everywhere, must pay a non-refundable application processing fee in the amount of 250 EUROS.

12. How can I apply?

Each candidate submits only online the application file prepared according to the instructions in the methodology below.

13. Admission application methodology:

All applicants must comply with the legal requirements regarding the minimum criteria for attending university studies, and with the legislation concerning temporary residency in Romania for the duration of studies.

In order to be evaluated for enrolment, please consult the documents necessary for the preparation of the application file (point A or B) and pay the non-refundable 250 EUROS fee for file processing in the following account:

17. Criteria for selecting students

General evaluation criteria. Applicants shall be accepted for enrolment preferentially, based on their fulfillment of the following evaluation criteria, as case may be:

- a. holder of an International Baccalaureate Diploma (IB) who obtained at least mark 5 in Chemistry and Biology;

or

- b. holder of a General Certificate of Education (GCE) with grade A or A+ who obtained at least B+ in Biology and Chemistry;

or

- c. both the average of the baccalaureate marks and the average of each year's marks in biology and chemistry represent at least 70% of the maximum mark that can be obtained in the country of origin, as long as none of the individual marks is lower than 60%;

or

- d. taking baccalaureate examinations in biology and chemistry;

or

- e. graduation from an accredited high school in the country of origin with biology and chemistry in the curriculum;

or

- f. graduation from an accredited high school in the country of origin, which issues a diploma recognized by the Romanian Ministry of National Education
- g. baccalaureate exam grades must meet minimum conditions for accepting international students in medical studies.

The high school diploma must allow access to higher education in the country of origin.

Individual evaluation of application files also includes the assessment of the following:

- a. Applicant's high school education: type of high school that the applicant graduated from, results obtained in the baccalaureate / high school leaving examination;
- b. Proof of language skills in the language of university instruction, attested by language certificates mentioned under point 4;

Faculties may interpret the evaluation criteria differently.

Important notes:

We only accept the ONLINE application.

Incomplete files are processed, but are not eligible for evaluation.

Non-translated proof documents are not eligible for evaluation.

Appendices 1 and 2 must be dated and signed in order for the file to be evaluated.

The results of the selection process cannot be contested.

Any correspondence delivered to the university after the deadline and the completion of the selection process will not be taken into consideration.

By selecting you, the University takes no responsibility for your enrolment as a student.

If you were selected on the basis on a fraudulent application (you provided information that is not in compliance with actual facts), the University will decline your enrolment.

18. How are high school studies recognized by Romanian authorities?

a. For EU, EEA and Swiss Confederation citizens, studies are recognized by the National Center for Recognition and Equivalence of Diplomas, which is part of the Romanian Ministry of Education and Research. All the documents required for the recognition of high school studies are also included in the application file.

If you are considered eligible and your file is complete, the University will submit your documents for recognition to the National Center for Recognition and Equivalence of Diplomas.

Upon evaluation of your file, the National Center for Recognition and Equivalence of Diplomas will issue a certificate/attestation granting you the right to pursue higher education studies in Romania.

Enrolment in the study programs of our university is dependent upon recognition of your studies by the National Center for Recognition and Equivalence of Diplomas.

Failure to receive recognition from the National Center for Recognition and Equivalence of Diplomas prevents us from enrolling you.

b. For non-EU citizens, high school studies are recognized by the General Department for International Relations and European Affairs within the Romanian Ministry of Education and Research. All the documents required for the recognition of high school studies are also included in the application file.

If you are considered eligible and your file is complete, the General Department for International Relations and European Affairs issues a Letter of acceptance to studies. This letter is indispensable for obtaining the study visa.

Enrolment in the study programs of our university is dependent upon recognition of your studies by the General Department for International Relations and European Affairs.

Failure to receive recognition of your studies from the General Department for International Relations and European Affairs prevents us from enrolling you.

If studies are not recognized by the National Center for Recognition and Equivalence of Diplomas or (as the case) by the General Department for International Relations and European Affairs, the study contract concluded between the student and the “Iuliu Hațieganu” University of Medicine and Pharmacy from Cluj-Napoca ends on the date the document stating that your studies are not officially recognized is issued.

The fees that the student pays before matriculation are non-refundable.

Note!

Attach a document describing the marking system used in the schools that you attended (the equivalent grades for failed-excellent).
